Dear Betty Jo,

We've suffered through all U.S. history together.

Do you know any thing about the Wall War, or Jefferson, or the "Trust Busters"? I thought not!

Oh, well. We'll have to manage without it. Good luck to you.

A WORD FROM THE MANAGEMENT...

To our retiring principal, Arthur M.
Nichelson . . .

To our teachers and fellow students . . .

It is our wish that you find in this 1940 Maroon enjoyment in reviewing the events of the past year and in recalling to mind your many associations and friendships.

TO OUR GUEST STAR

BECAUSE you won the admiration and respect of both students and faculty for your judgments, firm yet kind; for your guidance, wise yet sympathetic;

BECAUSE we enjoyed your delightful bits of philosophy, which were expressed humorously, but held so much truth and wisdom;

BECAUSE, during your years at Hirsch you have encouraged greater scholastic pursuits and cultural enterprises and maintained a school of high moral and ethical standards (of which we all are proud);

BECAUSE everyone in Hirsch wants to wish you happiness in the future and contentment in your new "life", and to assure you that we shall never forget our genial, understanding "First Man of Hirsch";

We dedicate the 19th edition of the Maroon to you, our chief executive, adviser and everlasting friend.

MR. ARTHUR M. NICHOLSON

Hirsch's student body stars again in scenes of study and recreation.

Musical, scientific, artistic, or athletic—each and every talent is given its chance in the ten departments which pass in review on the following pages.

In registering for classes in high school the freshman plots his course according to his interests and talents.

He has an opportunity . . .

—To learn to speak a foreign language.

—To gain knowledge and experience in the technical subjects.

THE DEPARTMENTS

—To become a good citizen through his study of the social sciences.

—To learn the art of self-expression under the guidance of the English instructors.

—To become acquainted with the great masters in music and art.

—To find health and enjoyment in sports.

—To train himself for work in the business world.

—To solve the unknown and study the known in the world of science.

—To learn accuracy and logical thinking in the study of mathematics.

—And to gain military bearing and prestige in the R.O.T.C. world.

TALENT SCOUTS SEARCHED

in the halls, in the lunchroom, in the assembly, in the gyms, and even in the swimming pool for two typical students who could be called "ideal".

They studied tall girls, pretty girls, short girls, athletic girls, and intelligent girls. They considered the charm, looks, personality, and intelligence of the many lads at Hirsch.

But they could not find the two ideal students. Consequently, these "searchers-for-talent" decided to manufacture their ideal boy and girl by selecting these students, each having at least one outstanding quality; and the result is the Hirsch ideal boy and girl.

TRY TO FIND

DIRECTING THE PROGRAM . . .

MISS MARGARET M. HURNEY

Doing the many necessary things behind the scenes in setting the stage for school life at Hirsch, Miss Hurney has won the admiration of faculty and students for her excellent work. School organization has become second nature to her and meeting and solving problems is part of her daily routine.

Busy with her many duties, Miss Hurney still has time to take a personal interest in the individual pupil. Her sympathetic understanding of the students and their difficulties has enabled her to remove obstacles in the way of student progress.

Charged with the task of organizing teacher programs and classes, she has, each semester, so well built her master program that classes begin immediately with a minimum of confusion.

Our hats are off to "The First Lady of Hirsch."

ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL . .

GUIDING THE ACTORS . . .

WE KNOW THEM . . .

In division and in student activities we meet these sponsors. Their assistance and guidance is appreciated by all who come to them with problems of conduct or with program difficulties. They give freely of their time and experience in supervising those extra-curricular activities which make Hirsch such an outstanding school. The student body thanks them for their contributions to a complete school life.

BRING YOUR TROUBLES HERE . .

WHEN YOU'RE TARDY

Visit the attendance office where Miss Lois Bennett and Miss Ruth Cullen will gladly give you an admit slip (and keep a record of it!) Oh! well, you could use a study period, anyway.

ABOUT YOUR PROGRAM

The adjustment office under the supervision of Miss Ella O'Keefe and Miss Suzanne Fisher will set you on the right course of study and will help you overcome your difficulties in those tough subjects.

ALL IS ACTIVITY

"Mrs. Kuehn, I have some money for you." "Mrs. Bower, will you have those supplies sent up to 206, please?" "Oh, Miss McManus, I forgot my monthly report." "Miss Friedman, have you that special form for registration?" And so it goes—The office is always buzzing with talking, typewriting, or telephoning, as the office force performs its various duties.

WHERE SILENCE RULES

In our well-stocked library, students may do reference work under the expert guidance of our head librarian, Mrs. Mildred Lott and her assistant, Mrs. Bessie Becker. In this place for study, Hirschites are finding the ideal conditions for concentrated work, with a wide range of material ready at hand.

The modern English course little resembles the one of olden days. Spelling, verbs, and sentence construction were stressed when our fathers were in school. Today we write essays and stories, read poetry and the great classics, study journalism and write for the school publications, learn to speak before an audience—these are the lessons we now learn in the English department.

To teach the art of self-expression is the purpose of this most important division of education. To put what is in your mind on paper or to put your ideas over to an audience are vital elements in our every-day social life. Perhaps you are not destined to be a great author or speaker but you will always find your study of English valuable.

'40 MAROON LITERARY STAFF

From September to January, things were fairly quiet on the annual front, but these last hectic months February, March, and April were filled to the brim with picture-taking, writing, and a million other activities which occupied the members of the staff many long afternoons. However, no one is sorry that he took part in publishing the Maroon. It was great fun while it lasted!

MAROON AND HERALD SALESMEN

THAT MAN WHO CAME AROUND . . .

. . . so often, probably wanted to sell you a Maroon. And no doubt he succeeded, judging from the excellent records set up by the salesmen of the annual.

With a goal of 1700 books to be sold by deadline, these "go-getters" couldn't afford to waste time. So bigger and better sales campaigns were launched and as a result—a bigger and better Maroon.

HERALD OFF THE PRESS!

Yes, it's the Herald salesman back again. He comes around every other Thursday to sell you the "official loudspeaker" of Hirsch. Chanting his "high pressure sales talk", he is a popular figure during division periods on the day the Herald "comes out".

THE TIDES, TIME, AND

Every other Thursday spells excitement, surprise and satisfaction to readers of the Hirsch Herald. Likewise it means a day of rest to the hard-working staff of editors and reporters, for whom the last ten days have meant one round of consultations with their sponsor, Mrs. Esther Solomon, in regard to the make-up of the paper and the assignment sheets. Reporters have been wracking their brains for snappy "leads", hot on the trail of a story, editors have been rejecting copy, seeking individualism, and encouraging the weary reporters to "be themselves." Then finally came copy-reading, proof-reading, and—at last—the finished product.

The staff enthusiastically participated in the National Scholastic Press Association Convention last November, acting as hosts at the Stevens hotel, and representatives were sent to the All-Chicago meetings held at the Medill School of Journalism.

While the literary staff is writing, the business staff is equally busy getting out publicity in the form of skits, poster, etc. Thursday—relaxation day for editors, means hustling for the business staff under the guidance of Mrs. Gertrude Neal. The business staff is responsible for all the ads, publicity, sales, and general finance of the Herald.

The efforts of the editorial and business staffs combined together make the Hirsch Herald one of the outstanding school newspapers in the country. Much hard work and constructive thinking were necessary to achieve this goal, and to retain it, means constant striving towards improvement.

SOCIAL SCIENCE..

UPPER GROUP: Mr. Oran Artman, Mr. Albert Ross, Miss Margaret Shannon, Mrs. Margaret Irmiger, Miss Georgia Allen. LOWER GROUP: Mrs. Kathleen Bordner, Miss Cornelia Ryan.

To teach us to live at peace with the world with a knowledge of good citizenship and a background of the world's and our own country's history is the aim of this Social Science department and its instructors.

In the civics and history classes we learn how our nation's government is run and then, after class, we enter Room 105, the headquarters of our Student Government, and put those same principles in practice.

Such is the advantage of living in a democracy where we have an equal chance of educating ourselves and then testing what we have learned even before we have left the educational system behind us.

THAT MEN MAY LIVE IN PEACE . .

HIRSCH'S STUDENT GOVERNMENT

"THE MEETING WILL COME TO ORDER"

It is these famous words that open each session of the Student Representative Assembly and the wheels of this organization are set in motion. An amendment to the Constitution to be proposed, a bill to be passed, an activity pin drive, a sale to be launched, all this may be contained in the business of the day.

After two and a half years of existence, the Student Government has finally come into its own and is looked up to and respected not only by the students of Hirsch but by other schools as well.

With the four officers, four bureau heads, and senior judge, as its executive council, the Student Assembly endeavors to act according to the desires of the students.

THE LONG ARM OF THE LAW . . .

Lawbreakers will think twice before committing a second offense after appearing in the Student Court. Conducted with a strict procedure, the court metes out justice as it sees fit, acquitting when possible; punishing when necessary. With its senior and junior judges, James Lesparre and Robert Elghammer, its defense and prosecution lawyers, its bailiffs, and its clerks, the court in many ways resembles our federal courts. Congratulations to the Student Court for retaining the students' respect while maintaining peace and order at Hirsch.

NOT TWO—NOT THREE—BUT FOUR BUREAUS . . .

Is the boast of Hirsch's Student Government! The Civic Bureau, with Phil Bulot at its head, sets the pace for the social whirl of the school with its gay dances and assemblies. For money in the bank and well balanced books we are indebted to the Finance Bureau. These future financiers are directed by John De Cook. Every member of the Publicity Bureau is an announcer, skit-writer, and actor all rolled into one. This bureau, under Stanley Fixter, is also responsible for the clever posters that decorate our halls. The Traffic Bureau, with James Lesparre as chairman, registers those cream and bown licenses found on all the teachers' and students' cars.

"WHERE'S YOUR PASS?" ...

From every corner of the building this shout rings out to startle the student, who, without a care (or a pass), may be sauntering down the hall. Since you can't escape their watchful eyes, be cautious; do not venture into the corridors unless you have a bodyguard in the form of an official pass.

SPREADING GOOD CHEER . . .

. . . is the aim of the Junior Red Cross Council. Under the leadership of David Moon, president; Martha York, vice-president; Mollie Bossen, secretary; and Ruth Casler, treasurer, the Council meets once a month to plan ways and means of bringing cheer to the shut-ins. The club, formerly sponsored by Miss M. Shannon, is now being guided by Mrs. Bruno.

SIGHT-SAVING CLASS

Having poor eyesight is no handicap for these students! In Room 215 they gather daily and with their special books, improved lighting conditions, and even special typewriters, they accomplish their work with ease and efficiency.

Entertaining plays, attractive posters, voice recordings, beautiful costumes, blended voices—all represent the multitude of talents to be found at Hirsch. In this, the Fine Arts department, the student has his chance to shine in his particular talent because here he studies music, art, and drama under expert instructors.

From this department have come many talented persons and, no doubt, many will continue to be discovered here.

By daily appearing in plays, singing at various entertainments, and designing and exhibiting original drawings or paintings, the student receives valuable experience in developing his talents.

Not to be outdone by the '38 choir which went to St. Louis, the 1940 Choral Club will participate in the Midwestern Music Contest at Springfield. This honor is a result of receiving an "S" rating in the All City Choral Competition last January.

Beside having a top honor group, the Choral Club can boast of several outstanding individual voices.

For their social activities and to swell the treasury, they sponsored two dances a year.

Singing for teas, conventions, banquets, and on the radio are only a few of the outside activities in which the Choral Club participates.

Mrs. Helena Kane, director and sponsor of the choir, also acts in the capacity of friend and counselor to the members and works in conjunction with the officers: President, Phil Bulot; Vice-President, Pat Stone; Secretary, Doris Brunell; and Treasurer, Jack Landes, to produce one of the top clubs of the school.

"HIRSCH GIRLS' GLEE CLUB, 'E'!!"

A wild shout broke out which told where Hirsch's boosters were to be found as this fine rating was announced at the recent Choir Contest held at Hyde Park High School. Our girls not only bring home good ratings but they are always active between contests. Beside giving a puppet show of the opera, "The Mikado", they will give an annual dance and also entertain their mothers at a tea. The present officers are Lois Lundquist, president, Marge Davidson, vice-president, Betty Rudloff, secretary, Marie Subert, treasurer, and Elaine Davidson, social chairman.

JUNIOR CHOIR

Made up of lower classmen, the Junior Choir is giving beginners in choral singing the training and experience needed for the more advanced programs of the Choral Club. Hard workers, and always eager to promote activities for the benefit of the whole school, the Junior Choir is building an enviable reputation and is establishing its own traditions. Its officers are George Lamb, Dorothy Hopper, Louise Weeks, and Louis Dietelbaum.

"CURTAIN! FIRST CURTAIN!" ...

For days before a production is presented to the school, the members of the Hirsch Drama Club experience emotions in three progressive stages. The first days after choosing the play are ones of complete joy and eager anticipation, as was the case when the 1939 Drama Club decided upon "You Can't Take It With You", most outstanding comedy of the 1938-39 season, as their senior play.

The second stages, ranging from dying enthusiasm to utter indifference, and including various degrees of anger and disgust, are experienced by the entire cast, the stagehands, and the sponsor, Miss Sarah Niederman. Such has been the case during rehearsals for "The Loves of Lionel", "Submerged", "The Valiant", and "A Happy Journey."

The third emotional stage is experienced on Opening Night. At this time, every person in the play is absolutely convinced that he is the world's worst actor, that he will forget his cues, or that the stage settings will tumble about his ears. This emotion, closely associated with "cold feet", is dispelled, however, as the curtain rises on Opening Night.

The Drama Club is an important part of Hirsch's extra-curricular activities. The students of Hirsch encourage their efforts, cheer them when they are despairing, tolerate them when they become "temperamental", and support their enterprises wholeheartedly.

Perhaps you won't agree with title given French, Spanish, Latin, or German—the "Romance" languages—but you will agree that the study of these languages aids in the study of English.

The ultimate purpose of the language course is, however, to teach the student how to speak a certain tongue fluently and intelligently. This is seldom accomplished in the four-year high school course, but a solid foundation for future study is laid.

There is another advantage in studying a foreign tongue. It acquaints us with other peoples, their ways of living, their countries, and their literature. To gain a really liberal education it is necessary to learn to study and understand the various peoples of the world.

C.V.C. STUDENTES

The C.V.C. Studentes, which is one of Hirsch's most popular organizations, aims to further, among its members, the interest in, and knowledge of the Latin language, and the Roman people and their country. The meaning of the letters C.V.C. in the club's name is "Caesar, Virgil, and Cicero", and the purpose of this is to honor these three great Roman leaders.

Because the Latin club regretfully lost their able sponsor, Miss Martha Larson, in the middle of last semester when she retired, the sponsorship was taken over by Mr. Charles Ruddy, much to the delight of the members. Thus, under the guidance of their new sponsor and their officers; Stanley Fixter, president; Mary Stoll, vice president; Margaret Danielson, secretary; and Fred Guendel, treasurer, the C.V.C. Studentes meet twice monthly to transact their business and enjoy a program of entertainment.

By hearing distinguished speakers, by corresponding with students, and by observing the arts of the Latin countries, the league hopes to do their part in keeping the peace among these countries a permanent one.

The language of the mathematician is an interesting jargon of equations, theorems, axioms, and logarithms. These terms, which have no meaning to the uninitiated, have a definite significance to the student who enrolls in courses of mathematics.

This department strives not only to educate the student in practical applications of the science, but also to introduce to him a method of logical reasoning and organized analysis which will benefit him later in life.

For the purpose of solving the unknown and studying the known, every high school has established a Science department. The basic sciences as well as the more advanced courses in chemistry and physics trains the average students in accurate observation and constructive thinking.

For the more scientific-minded person, these courses, plus general science, biology, botany, and zoology, give a sound basis for more advanced work in the world of experiment and discovery.

To train the student for work in the economic and business world is the purpose of the Commercial Department. Its curriculum includes such subjects as bookkeeping, typing, stenography, sales and commercial geography.

These subjects combine to form a well-rounded education in handling the every-day economic problems we will all have to face, as well as presenting a basis for further study and experience in the higher world of finance.

Practice in selling, balancing debits and credits, and taking rapid shorthand are all part of the program of teaching accuracy, speed and sound economic "common sense".

Gaining knowledge with actual experience is what the students of the Technical department are accomplishing. The girls who aim to be future housekeepers learn to sew, cook, and even decorate their future homes. Down in the various shops the boys are learning to set up print, and turn wood and tin into useful objects.

This course not only trains the student in practical experience but teaches him co-ordination of mind and hand, accuracy, and gives him or her a sense of real accomplishment. This sense of achievement is perhaps the most stimulating and enjoyable part of learning.

If you're outshined in the classroom, step into the Physical Education department where both boys and girls are offered a chance to star in any sport they care to participate in. Hockey, volleyball, basketball, baseball, or football, track, and wrestling,—they are all part of the program planned for improving the student's body as well as his mind.

To succeed in this world a person must have more than ability. There must be stamina and good health to carry him through. Every high school has established a physical education program; perhaps not to build radiantly healthy bodies but, rather, to train the students in healthful habits. Cleanliness and good sportsmanship go hand in hand in the regular gym classes and in team competition.

In the autumn it is hockey which dominates the scene. Winter finds the center of activity focused on the basketball court; in the spring volleyball and baseball hold sway; while table tennis, badminton, and shuffleboard are popular all year round.

Aside from actual participation in sports, the club has various other activities. Social affairs have an important place on the club calendar.

The executive authority is vested in the four officers: Margaret Withers, president; Marion Etten, vice-president; Matilda Wendt, secretary; and Betty Jean Williams, treasurer. Miss Vera Trayford is sponsor of the G.A.A.

. . . the finalists of the 1939 Basketball season. Led by Captain Fred Stone, this stalwart "five" went through a hard season. After losing three games at the start of the year, they went on through a series of "thrillers" to capture the section title, only to lose the Championship to Lane in the roughest game of the season, by the narrow score of 30-25. Our hats are off to them; George Coleman, John Wittich, Bill Corbett, Ed Gustafson, Bernie Rosing, and Fred Stone, for their record and for their fine example of good sportsmanship and fair play.

... were one of the finest teams Hirsch has ever put on a gridiron. Much smaller than any of the previous teams, this aggregation fought its way to third place in the South Section.

Led by Captain "Bosco" Sabino, the Huskies played a fine brand of "heads-up" football all season, losing only two games all year, one to the City Champions, Fenger, and the other to Morgan Park.

The Hirsch gridmen will suffer heavily by the graduation of Captain Sabino, Bob Hull, Bob Robinson, Earl Hein, Phil Mitchell, Tom Foley, Tom Fitzpatrick, Jack Lopater, Warren Tengblad, Harold Grund, Le Roy

Lutz, and Warren Heidhues. However, to replace these graduates, Coach Bland is looking forward to moving up many of the lightweight team. Ten lettermen are returning to form the basis of the '40 Huskies. They are Tony Reda, Dick Prendergast, Harry Wahlberg, Tom Duffy, Glen Peak, Bill Nicholson, Bob Kitsteiner, Joe Aurelio, Sidney Weinstein, and Russell May.

Much credit for the fine showing of the team goes to Coach Earl Bland, who in his first year as coach gave Hirsch hopes of reaching championship heights. The team, spurred on by a new high in school support and student enthusiasm, fought hard all year and gave warning to teams throughout the South Section that it will be the team to watch in 1940.

The much envied, much admired man of Hirsch is the letterman. The "H" that adorns his maroon and white sweater was earned through his efforts in basketball, baseball, football, swimming, track, tennis or skating. Good sportsmanship, keen thinking, and hard playing are but a few requirements for earning this reward. "H" stands for hard work, and how! Ask the man who owns one.

GOING OFF THE SPRINGBOARD

With few defeats, the senior swimming team has just completed a fairly successful season, accompanied by the greatest support from the student body seen in several seasons. The Juniors, although handicapped by late classes, showed real promise by winning three of their meets and are expected to bring in many victories next season. The future looks bright for the Juniors and while the Seniors will lose several good swimmers this June, the team has high hopes for the coming year.

CHAMPIONS TO US

To win the city championship is the dream of every city high school team and only one other team came as close to it as Hirsch this year. That team was Crane and one game ruined a perfect record for a near-perfect team. After a season as brilliant as has ever been witnessed by a Hirsch rooting section, Hirsch entered the city finals, supported by one of the largest crowds ever to attend a game. After a hard fight, Hirsch bowed to Crane to the tune of 35-23, and for the second time in two years had to be content with second place. Although they lost out in the most important game of the season, they will always be remembered as the "fightingest", "go-gettingest" team Hirsch has ever boasted of.

JUNIOR BASKETBALL TEAM

"THE MIGHTY MITES"

Hirsch's lightweight team is noted for its fighting, its perseverance, and its never-say-die spirit. It is this spirit that brought the team as far as the city Quarter-Finals on two separate occasions. In the last tournament their old rival, Manley High School, cheated them out of a berth with the top-flight teams in the city. The school has high hopes of having a lightweight as well as a heavyweight team in the City Finals next year.

"ANGELS" OR "MAN MOUNTAINS" . . .

Wrestling has recently come into new prominence at Hirsch. And the boys are ready to grapple with the best teams in the city.

AND THEY HANDED OUT THE UNIFORMS . . .

R.O.T.C. ON PARADE . . .

A roll of drums, a blare of bugles, and the review is on. Here passes a comparatively new organization, holding its own against the older and more experienced schools.

Hirsch's R.O.T.C. had its beginning back in 1936. After its first "Federal Inspection" in '37, it started its strut forward.

Then news flashed back that Hirsch was acclaimed an "Honor School". That was in 1938. Throughout '39 they held the same position and expect to carry on the tradition this year.

Their "grand young man" is Sergeant Sulo Ojala of the United States Army. He is every cadet's ideal and serves as both friend and advisor to the highest ranking officers to the lowliest privates.

Another "grand young man" is Major Renth, supervisor of the south side R.O.T.C. His time is taken up with visiting many schools but he is seen very often chatting with Sergeant Ojala about the various points of commanding a division of high-spirited soldiers.

By now these soldiers should have passed your "reviewing stand" and are marching off the field with true military "pomp and circumstance".

RETIRING OFFICERS

NEW OFFICERS

THE BEST IN THE CROWD . . .

. . . are the officers, the ones who, in shiny "Sam Brown belts", with medals dangling on their chests and sabres in their hands, strut down the halls, proudly acknowledging the salutes of their subordinates—the ones who march before their units, guiding them onward—the ones who, because of their expert knowledge of cadets, were chosen to be the leaders.—And they all are leaders, in every sense of the word.

LEFT! RIGHT! LEFT! KEEP IN STEP!

FIRING A WINNING BARRAGE...

Ranking with the top three teams in the city for the past two years is the outstanding record of the R.O.T.C. Rifle Team. These expert marksmen may be found almost any hour of the day haunting their new subterranean rifle range. There they practice hourly to improve their already excellent scores.

THE UNIT SPEAKS...

What good is an organization nowadays, without an official mouthpiece? Not a "mouthpiece" of the "roaring twenties", but something modern—ranking among the best in the country—the only one of its kind in the city. It's a paper Reserved For The Cadets, where the "whys and wherefores" are combined with the recent happenings to form the official organ of the R.O.T.C.—the "Reviewing Stand."

BUGLES AND DRUMS—PLAYING THEY COME!

No doubt it is quite an established fact that "Swing is here to stay," but then, how many of us can march to swing? Somewhere there must be a slow band that can send forth a steady, rhythmic beat. Yes, there must be—and there is. Hirsch's Drum and Bugle Corps,—a group of men filling the air with martial music, which accompanies the "R.O. boys" in all their parades.

JUST STARTING OUT . . . .

WITH THEIR FEET ON THE FIRST RUNG . . .

. . . the freshman, bewildered and overwhelmed with his new environment, little realizes the pleasure that is ahead of him in his four years of high school life at Hirsch. His time is taken up with meeting his new teachers, learning the rules and regulations of traffic, and getting a firm hold on his chosen course of study.

But after this newness wears off, there is an entirely new course to enroll in—an extra-curricular one, composed of the various organizations at Hirsch.

So aim high and keep climbing!

CLASS

AFTER COMPLETING FOUR

John Wittich, basketball star, as president; glamorous Helen Melling, vice-president; likable Janis Graf doing the recording; and Bob Meskill in charge of collecting the "dough", was the efficient staff of officers heading the February graduates.

YEARS . . . WE HAVE GONE ON

CLASS HISTORY

1ST YEAR . . .

Feb. 6, '36—Welcome freshies — that's us . . .

Feb.—We receive our first issue of the Hirsch Herald . . . say high school isn't bad after all.

Mar. 26—Triumph! Five scholastically inclined 1 B's appear on the all E honor roll.

May 14—We get excused from classes—first music festival.

June—Vacation already? It hasn't seemed like eighteen weeks . . .

Oct. 1—Join now — not the navy — our newly organized R.O.T.C.

Oct. 30—Know how to dance? Well swing it at the Jinx dance . . .

Dec. 18—Assembly to see the new members of the National Honor Society, think we'll ever get to 3A?

Jan. 22—"Wanta buy a prom bid?" "Heck no, were only freshmen . . ."

2ND YEAR . . .

Feb. 11, '37—First Peepy's Diary appears on the feature page of the Herald.

Feb.—Can you whistle? Join the newly organized whistling choir, maybe you can get Elmo Tanner's job . . .

Mar. 19—Classes out—"A Tale of Two Cities" at the Grove . . . a movie has saved our souls.

April 8—All work and no play, first Open House tonight at 7:30.

May 5—Shine those buttons boys—Federal R.O.T.C. Inspection today in the park.

June 8—We're all in bed suffering from bruises from yesterday's new registration plan in the cafeteria.

Nov. 18—Gee, thirty-two of us will take journalism next semester. Natural born reporters, that's us . . .

Jan. 12—Our enrollment decreases . . . the new Jones Commercial school opens.

Jan. 25—What's this about a new Student Government?

3RD YEAR . . .

Feb. '38—Upper classmen, ahem! Clear the halls—here we come . . .

Mar. 14—Save your money and buy tickets for "Well's Fargo", it's for the Choral Club.

Mar.—Howie Trocky and Jerry Samuels rate high on the rifle team. Smoke Camels boys?

Mar. 30—First Student Government elections . . .

Mar. 30—Ruth Costo leaves for St. Louis with the Choral Club—some kids get all the luck.

April 5—Election of third year officers . . . Johnny Wittich, president; Virginia Kohler, vice president; Janis Graf, secretary;

Bob Meskill, treasurer; and Charlotte Edman, social chairman.

April 30—Open house—say we never did learn when we were supposed to do homework . . .

May—Spring fever, remember the struggle we had in Adv. Alg. . . . we bet Miss Feltges does.

June—Johnny Hicks heads the journalism class edition of the Herald. What a mess! Not Hicks—the job . . .

June—Vacation at last! Gee, do we need a rest!

Sept.—We're still looking for that rest . . .

Oct.—Pictures are being taken for the Maroon. The teachers are going crazy, no one goes to class.

Nov. 20—Fourth class officer pictures: Maybe it's the camera, and then it could be . . . but no!

Dec.—National Honor Society elects seven 3A's . . .

Dec.—We are reminded in division that we are 3A's and should act as such. Can we help it if we are anxious to see Santa?

Jan.—Bosco Sabino elected captain of the football team . . . nice going, eh . . .

4TH YEAR . . .

Feb. '39—Senior at last after three years of hard work . . .

Feb.—Sad ceremony in division today—Miss Zurawski is leaving us 'till next year . . .

April 6—John Wittich and Bob Meskill win class elections unanimously. Janis Graf is secretary and Helen Melling is vice president.

May 11—Scoop—the Herald prints the names of the ushers for June commencement.

May 27—"You can't Take It With You" is chosen as senior play . . .

May 27—Bob Olson takes city title for track . . .

June—Graduation practice . . . boy is it hot!—the weather.

Sept. 21—"Robbie" Robinson is elected president of the Student Government . . . can we have your autograph?

Sept.—Senior committees chosen—more work . . .

Dec.—Cap and gown measurements—are you really that big?

Jan.—Class averages on the bulletin board . . . Bill Fralich is valedictorian.

Jan. 19—Gala affair this prom . . .

Jan. 23—Class breakfast—fried chicken 'n everything . . .

Jan. 24—After four long years of hard struggle we graduate at Hyde Park . . . tears? . . . don't be silly.

looking backward with regret, and forward with hope and anticipation, the seniors are about to begin a new, more challenging search for success.

The offices of the June Class have been ably filled by Edward Lord, chief executive; Patricia Stone, his likeable understudy; Lorraine Ricketts, taking care of correspondence and writing "pomes"; and Victor Taylor, the money-man in charge of the treasury.

. . . . . SOME WANT FAME

CLASS PROPHECY

"Tickets, tickets, get your tickets here." That voice sounds familiar. The face is familiar; why it's BOB KULVIN, selling tickets. The scene is the Mid-Western Prep School Football Championship game of 1950 at Soldier's Field. Hirsch is playing Podunk for the Championship, and so, many of the alumni of the June, 1940 class should be in the crowd. Let's look around and see who's here. Caught in the mass surging to the ticket window, are MARY BARNES, BOB HULL, left guard of the St. Louis Cardinals, PEARL DANIELSON, WARREN TENGBLAD, and the MAHER twins, BOB and ED, who are now renowned pilots. Hardly visible in the mad mob is STERLING JACKSON, sports commentator.

We crush on in through the entrance and see TOM FITZPATRICK and JACK FABER, chief ushers, with a crowd of Andy Frain's ushers consisting of ED NILSON, LLOYD FONS, DON BURNS, JOE GRECO AND MIKE FABING who are directing the excited Hirsch fans to their seats.

"Popcorn, popcorn," rings out the voice of JACKLOPATER, vending his luscious ware to all. We call him over and greet him with a friendly slap on the back. He tells us that he just saw HAZEL ERICKSON, BARBARA DE GRAW, and DOROTHY MURTHA, all stenographers, come in Gate 15.

While we idly munch our popcorn, we glance over to the Press Box and see LE ROY BIERINGER, sports editor, and BETTY HAYES, his assistant. In the box reserved for the radio announcers, we see CLARENCE CHRISTENSON and TED SMITH, all ready to describe the game over the air. Down on the field, ready to act as head linesman is WARREN HEIDUES, coach of athletics at Northwestern University.

The game starts. Soon Hirsch scores a touchdown, and JANE JEROME leads the high school cheer leaders in a rousing sky-rocket. The touchdown brings such violence from the sports crazy fans behind us, that they smash our new Stetson. Whirling around, we see that Captain TOM O'DONNELL of the F.B.I. and Motorcycle Police Captain PAUL SCHWENEDNER, are the enthusiastic spectators.

During the half, we wander over to the hot dog stand and see CHUCK RYER and BOB SILVEY behind the counter giving the usual eye to models HELEN DUBACH, JAYNE DELANEY, and EVELYN KONCHAR.

Grouped near the drinking fountain are JERRY BRAVEMAN, artist, BOB BING, insurance salesman, RAYMOND CONKLING, mechanic, and ROBERT SWOGER, football coach at Smith High school, all talking about the good old days, when they didn't have to worry about gas bills and Junior's new suit.

Back in our seats again, we see that LOWELL ROBERTS, shoe salesman, has taken his old place with the cheer leaders. Probably when Lowell wrenches his back, he will find Dr. JACK LANDES' liniment a handy thing to have around.

The game proceeds with even more excitement than in the first quarters. The crowd goes wild, when in the last minute of play, Hirsch wins by a score of 13 to 12. RALPH ANDERSON, life guard, JAMES KOHLER, mechanic, JOE DONAHUE, salesman, and HAROLD McCOY, truck driver, are down on the field, joyously tearing down the goal posts. Down in the locker room, we find JOHN BOYLE and WARREN FINK, both engineers, and WILLIAM HARR, farmer, congratulating the team on their grand victory. The team, by the way, is using LE ROY LUTZ'S soap. We know you've heard his slogan, "Soap by Lutz, for better sudz."

Well, we must leave now and hurry down to the Stevens Hotel, where the June, 1940 class is having a dinner dance reunion after the game. We hop into a taxi driven by DON FEARE, and speed on our way. We pass one of those old red street cars, and mockingly wave at EDWARD FILES, conductor, and EMMET McBRIDE, motorman, who clangs back a greeting on his bell.

We pull up to the curb, and DELBERT CREMENS, doorman, opens our door. We pass through the Michigan Avenue entrance of the Stevens and walk into a spacious lounge. We glance around quickly, seeing many faces, which are strange, yet familiar. Over in the corner, midst a group of girls, sits a woman who especially takes our attention. We approach her. "Are you LORRAINE RICKETTS, the one who writes the newspaper column?" we ask.

"Why yes," she replies cordially, "do join us. Isn't this idea of a reunion of our class after the game a wonderful scheme? So much has happened in these ten years since we graduated. I just can't wait to see everyone. MOLLIE BOSSEN, MARJORY FERGUSON, BETTE ANDERSON, LORRAINE KOHLER, RUTH LETCHER, ANN

STEVENSON, BETTY JEAN EVANS, FLORENCE CANNELL, and JANICE HARVEY were just telling me about their jobs as nurses. Sit down and tell us about yourselves."

"We haven't time to stop," we say, "because we have to say hello to everyone, and the evening will slip by so quickly."

We move away and turn our attention to the rest of the guests. We spot JACK ERNST, who is now a doctor, engaged in deep conversation with VIRGINIA BUTTS, BERNARD MAMET, JAMES LESPARRE, and LESLIE ARNOLD, who are all lawyers. ROSEMARY CRANDELL, MARY LOU LANDES, ELAINE FLANDERS, SYBIL KRAMER, MARY ELLEN McKINNEY, and MARLEY JO BREADY, who are all climbing upward in the business world, are also in their crowd. Near by GEORGE ERKERT, and MARY MAY, who are both chemists, DORIS BRUNELL, sociologists, KATHRYN LETCHER, eye doctor, and ROBERT NORTHSHIELD, biologist, are engrossed in a conversation of their own.

A charming group of young ladies next attracts our eye. They are all so stunningly dressed that we know at once who they are. Of course, it's MARY LINE WEAVER, editor of a fashion magazine, discussing the latest styles with JEAN REID, BETTE DANGLER, MARILYN HILL, ALICE McLAUGHLIN, JUNE DREW, and GRACE PASKUS, all of whom are models; MARY LOUISE CARLSON and YVONNE MARTIN, both dress designers; MARGARET WEILGOT, costume designer, and BARBARA LEE, owner of an exclusive dress shop.

GEORGE CADDICK, pro tennis player, JOSEPH CONNERY, track coach, EDWARD LORD, umpire, DAN KNIGHT, pro baseball player, ROBERT JANN, Olympic marksman, and GEORGE SMITH, ice skating champion of U. S. for 1950, are deep in a heated argument—the subject, of course, is the game.

Gales of laughter ring out from the other end of the lounge. Here, LORRAINE ROSS, LUCILLE MADORIN, LOIS GRIFFIN, VIRGINIA HALL, BILLY ANN PENNINGTON, NORMA GUSTAFSON, and BETTY RUDLOFF, all salesgirls, are sitting, telling their amusing experiences with troublesome customers.

Next we spy SIDNEY FRANKEL, clothing salesman, and STANLEY FIX-

TER, department store manager, who, forgetting business for the time, are enthusiastically talking over the Hirsch victory with GENE MAGGARD, shoe salesman, and SHELDON YOUNG, a newly promoted police captain.

Another sports fan, LOIS MARVIN, child specialist, is still waving her arms around and leading a cheer, with JANE RAYFIELD, BETTY HANNA, EMILY PULLING and ETHEL NELSON, all stenographers, and LOIS GEBHARDT and MILDRED LENSE, both high school teachers, helping her with muffled voices, lest someone think them undignified.

Oops! A light just flashed on and off, but it was only that photographer of our class, BOB LAMONS, taking a candid shot of ROY SUNDELIUS, pro football coach, showing ART MARKUS, chemical engineer, and RAYMOND KRAUSE, printer, how that last play should have been done.

The reception hour is over and so we proceed into the dining room, beautifully decorated with flowers from MARJORIE DUBSKY'S and RUTH TAYLOR'S floral shop, for our banquet. Here, many more strangely familiar faces confront us. Just what are all these old friends of ours doing now? We are so impatient to find out, but we still have the whole evening before us.

PHIL BULOT, U. S. representative for Illinois, is the master of ceremonies. Before dinner, he reads some telegrams from absent members of our class. THOMAS BRETT, a salesman for a fruit company in South America, RALPH PROVENZANO, an army man, JILL JOHNSTON, pro ice skater, RUTH CASLER, Olympic swimming champion, and HENRY LIS, a big farmer in Texas, all sent their greetings and regrets that they could not be present, as did also CORALEE BREESE, violinist, HARRIETT PIEPENKOTTER, BUDD PARSON, pianist, MARILYN GUENDEL, and MARGARET HUGHES, also pianists, MARION JENSON, violinist, and GLEN HELLBERG, all of traveling symphony orchestras.

During the dinner hour, we are entertained by WALLY OTPIZ and his band, of which DON MELVOIN, drummer, JANE STEIN, pianist, SPENCE QUICK, WALTER HEINEN, and LAURA McAMMON, singer, are members.

Seated across us at our table, are WILLIAM SAVAGE, fire marshal, and SALLY STEPHENSON, teacher of the deaf, who tell us that JOE McELVAN is in Paris, studying hair-styling, and that RICHARD WAYNE, author, is also abroad, working on the background for his new book. At the far end of our table sits PAT STONE, educational director at a fashionable girls' school, conversing with MARY ELLEN SCOTT, police woman, about MURIEL MEDIN's new book, "Traveling Through China".

The program, featuring only the members of our class, is "swelegant". CARYL EPSTEIN, in Chicago on a traveling tour, talks about Hollywood; MARTHA YORK, radio star, gives a monologue; ANDY DOLAN, who is called the second Arthur Murray, and ANN BOYLE, a professional jitterbug, give us an exhibition of their skill; ROBERT HORTON, magician, holds us spellbound with his tricks, and CLARENCE CARTER reads us some of his latest poetic works. PRISCILLA LA VETT, ALICE FAIRCHILD, ELAINE DAVIDSON, ROSEMARY WARD and DOROTHY CROWE each sings us a song, and ARLENE THORSON, music teacher, also displays her art. As a special treat, WILLIAM TABBERT of the Civic Opera Company, sings for us and sings again and again in response to our applause. Such talent we have in just one class from Hirsch!

The tables are removed, the lights dim, and the music starts. The dancers move out on the floor. In the whirling crowd moving in the ballroom, we see JEANNE JAESCHKE, dentist's assistant, dancing with JERRY SMITH, architect. Dancing near them, we see DON HARDY, investor, and DAWN BLOSS, librarian. PEGGY SPANINGER, commercial artist, is smiling up into the face of FRANKLIN JESSUP, pilot. Rear Admiral LOWELL RICHMOND is dancing with MARJORIE HENNESSEY, candy salesgirl. JO ANN LOOMIS, hat check girl, is dancing with HOWARD SILSDORF, gym teacher. During the intermission, we see JEAN HARRELL, SHIRLEY ROSING, and MARGARET CAMPBELL, all commercial artists, in a group talking with JERRY BOWKER, artist; DONALD DRIVER, artist; and CARL OSTERHOFF, cartoonist for a big Chicago newspaper.

The music starts again and PETE SGUROS, fireman, moves out on the dance floor with VIRGINIA COWARD, teacher, but KENNETH ENRIGHT, dentist, cuts in, and Pete moves over to cut in on ROBERT ROBINETTE, mechanic, who is dancing with NANCY RILEY, librarian. While laughing at Bob's misfortune, Architect DAVID MOON'S dance with DOROTHY DRUMMOND, beauty operator, is interrupted by MILTON HENDRIE, C.P.A. WILLIAM STOFFEL, insurance salesman, whirls by with ELLEN TUTTLE, librarian. EVELYN JOHNSON, stewardess, waves a merry greeting to JANE LUNDGREN, another stewardess, and ROBERT DAHLBERG, salesman, as she swings by with EUGENE LANG, mattress demonstrator.

KATHRYN GAFFNEY steps up to the microphone to sing RUTH WILSON'S latest song. In the crowd gathered around the bandstand we see HELEN HENN and MADELINE HERTZEL, two school teachers; the WEXLER twins, LUCILLE and LYDA, who are both elevator operators in VERNON DANIELSON'S department store; and MARGARET WITHERS and MARIAN ETTEN, both gym teachers.

The crowd breaks up and VICTOR TAYLOR, draftsman, manages to reach SHIRLEY OZMENT, jeweler's assistant's side to ask her for the next dance before CLIFFORD TEELING, commercial artist, does. Clifford, not discouraged, disappears in the throng and soon we see him dancing with JEAN ROACH, telephone operator. Model GLORIA KNUDSEN and BILL PRESSLER, who is one of Hollywood's greatest publicity managers, pass by, and near them we spot ARLETTA LOOMIS, English teacher, with FRED PIERCE, civil engineer.

Sitting out this dance are IRENE DAVIS, court stenographer, and BERNARD REDEK, history teacher. Standing near the windows, gazing out at Michigan Avenue, are GWEN THOMAS, private secretary, and TED KIMBLE, lawyer.

The music ceases and we pass into an adjoining room for some punch and light refreshments. Already seated in the room and engaged in conversation are LORRAINE GREENE, MARY ELLEN QUINN, GERTRUDE LIPTON, and MARGARET O'NEIL, each an active clubwoman and member of a Citizens' committee. Another clubwoman, VIRGINIA COYTE, who is a National committee woman for a political party, enters with DONALD DILDINE, asking him to contribute his artistic efforts to a series of political cartoons. In a moment, she is off to ask BOB WENZEL, ace photographer, to bend his efforts to her cause. JEANNE LIGMAN, ingenue of several radio serials, stands near the table, talking to EDITH ANDERSON, editor of the women's page of a prominent daily newspaper. LOIS LUNDQUIST, dietitian, warns her companion, ELLA MAE CALLAHAN, who has recently passed the state bar examination, that another sandwich would be dangerous, but Ella Mae laughingly ignores her warning. PATRICIA MAURY, teacher, and JUNE KELLY, actress, are discussing HARRIETT ZIMMERMAN'S new play, starring ROBERT AHRENS with MARJORIE HAMMER and EDITH ZIK in the cast. The play opens on Broadway tonight.

CLASS PROPHECY

As the music starts once more, NORMAN LEONI, labor leader, steps out on the ballroom floor with JANET BURKE, interior decorator, while DOROTHY CURKAN, dietitian, dances out with RICHARD SPENCER, trombone player. LORRAINE McCOURT, buyer, is with DON HARVEY, draftsman. BETTY HOOVER, settlement house worker, is dancing with ROBERT HENNINGSON, mechanic. LORRAINE COOPERMAN, buyer, and PAUL POULAS, restaurant owner, are walking to seats at the edge of the floor. MARIAN NELSON, statistician, is swinging by with JOE PAPE, physical education teacher. Other couples enjoying this dance are VIOLA BOWKER, waitress, and ROBERT MAHER, union leader; DOLLY JONES, interior decorator, and WESLEY SIMMONS, real estate salesman; LORRAIN KOHLER, girls' dean, and JOHNNY MIXNER, chemist; MARILYN SHEETS, perfume salesgirl, and DONALD LAVINE, pharmacist; FRANCES WHITE, stenographer, and JOHN MCCARTHY, advertising man; and PAT DONAHOUE, court stenographer, and TOM BUTCHER, butcher.

The evening has flown by so swiftly that it hardly seems possible that it is time to leave. But, the music stops and the orchestra leaves. We leave the ballroom, and with many regrets, bid good-by to our old classmates. As we go out the door, we see JANE BLESKAN, HELEN MAHER, and MINERA BASIL, all private secretaries, climbing into a taxi, driven by WILLIAM BERGMAN.

The last one to leave at the Stevens is EARNEST HOOPER, night watchman, as he arrives for duty.

The night is still young, so the crowd agrees to meet at Mickelberry's. With a screech of brakes, we arrive there and rush in. Here, already seated, we see TEDDY BRANDMAYR, detective; BETTY SCHULZE, aviatrix; ELEANOR COHEN, beauty operator; HAROLD POLLE, bookkeeper; SUZANNE ROACH, interior decorator; RUTH SINGER, nurse; and WARREN CONGDON, electrician, who are giving their order to HARRIET PATT, head waitress. At another table, we see MARGOT MECKEL, model; BETTY LONG, cashier; RITA McCABE, psychiatrist; TOM LIBERMAN, air mail pilot; BERT RADBEL, athletic instructor; and BRYON HOSKINS, lawyer.

Just entering the door are BYRON and JUNE GRONLUND, who are engaged in the advertising business; ESTHER LAMPROSE, nurse; BETTY JEANNE KELLY, cashier; JIM ALLENSON, pilot; and HAROLD WAINER, forester.

Seated at another table is a group of girls consisting of BETTY LUTZ, MARJORIE STOCKINS, MARY McCROHAN, LUCILLE ROSEN, MAE ANDERSON, MILDRED STANEK, SHIRLEY JOHNSON, NADINE ATCHLEY, and GRACE RYNO, all secretaries, and ELEANOR STANDISH, ISABELL LUNDBLAD, JOSEPHINE FALCO, DOROTHY JONES and BETTY SOWERS, all air line hostesses. With them are HARRY JONES, JOHN JOHNSTON, THOMAS MORGAN and FRANK SMITH, smoking big cigars and talking over financial matters.

Near our table, we find ROSEMARY SUIDA, another cashier; MARY WILSON, cosmetic salesgirl; UNA STOCKMAN, theater cashier; JEAN WOLF, cashier; ETHEL RASMUSSEN, hat check girl, and DOROTHY NASHEN, soda fountain girl, are discussing our grand union. Also talking over our dinner are RICHARD HEIL, pilot; GUY CURIA, army man; HAROLD JEFFREY, truck driver; and EDWARD CONDREVA, pilot.

We leave Mickelberry's as the last strains of "Auld Lang Syne" reach our ears. We turn and take a last look at the happy faces of our old friends, and think over the events of the evening—the grand victory of Hirsch—the wonderful reunion of our class—the renewing of old friendships—the fun of talking over old times—and happily depart, with the thought that we must have another reunion very soon.

Dear Bettie Jo,

This is the brat again, still pestering the Bartmeses. I know you saved this room just for me. at least you better have. (I can dream can't I). We never did see much of each other in school, but I think we had more fun in the years I lived at your house than I ever had. Trouble was, my mother forgot she had a gal named Betty, so I had to stick around home a while so as we could get re-acquainted.
But it isn't good-bye for us, I hope,
and we'll see each other more again.
